"LOVES BOOMERANG"

Brian McCree is a successful artist who adopts a little girl model whose mother and father are dead. When the little girl, whose name is Perpetua, is 12 years old, Brian and she go to France where they go to a circus and eventually hire a circus van and lead a life of vagabondage. On returning to London Brian feels that Perpetua should be sent away to school and on the day of her departure Russell Felton, a man with a sinister past and Saville Mender, a wealthy young rouse see Brian measuring Perpetua's height on the gate a little French Inn. He immediately recognizes Perpetua as the daughter he had long ago abandoned. He finds a way to become acquainted with Brian, and keeping his own identity a secret, learns the story of Perpetua. Saville Mender is introduced to Brian and when Perpetua returns to England, Brian is painting Mender's portrait and Mender falls in love with Perpetua. Meantime, an accomplice of Felton's has been released from jail, and having "something on" Felton tries to get blackmail from him. Felton persuades him to wait, telling him that when Mender and Perpetua are married he will have much more power.

Felton then produces his marriage licence and proves that he is the father of Perpetua and Brian, realizing that he loves Perpetua, is powerless to prevent ~~his~~ marriage to Mender. Perpetua is not sure whether ~~comet~~ she loves Mender, but her convent training makes her feel that she should marry him to save him.

They are married and Mender's will is changed so that she instead of Felton is to have all of his money. On account of no longer being able to use drugs, Mender becomes subject to nerve attacks and ~~having~~ he after having been given a little brandy to quiet him in an attack, he suddenly dies. Perpetua, who has just purchased some poison supposedly to kill wasps, is accused and pronounced guilty of murder. Meantime, Felton is preparing to leave England, but before going, ~~and~~ feeling that he should not let his daughter suffer the extreme penalty, ~~he~~ writes a full confession of his guilt of having put the poison in the brandy which Perpetua had given her husband. While he is writing his accomplice arrives, they quarrel and in the scuffle they are both killed. At the crucial moment Brian, who has long suspected Felton, arrives with a couple of detectives and Perpetua is completely vindicated and comes into the love of Brian.
